TANKERS-Kick p-ROLLING

"Sailors have sea legs, and my tank crew members are now getting tank legs" said SFC Walter E. Pritchard, commander of Tank Number 13 of Heavy Tank Company. Tank legs come from hitting four mines in less than two weeks. SFC Pritchard said, "The men ride with their legs slightly bent in order to absorb the shock & that they are beginning to think is part of their daily routine."

Sgt. David Lindsey, driver, explained that he tries to stay in the rice paddies as much as possible, because recent experience has shown that they are blown back into the paddies anyhow.

We also thought that No. 13 was unlucky but Captain Morley, Company Commander, said it was a very lucky number because the crew was ready for action and the tank still in operation.

Everyone should take their "helmets off to a tank crew that hits four mines and keeps coming back for more."

Trainer: to men begining to run as lion got loose). Don't be afraid that lion has no teeth.

Men: Maybe not, but I'm not gonna stand here and be gummed to death!

"Tell the court how you came to take the car."

"Well, it was standing in front of a cemetery so I thought the owner was dead."

Fat blonde: In the bus this morning three men jumped up and offered me their seats.

Slender blonde: Did you take them, dear?

1st grade boy: How did you like that movie?

2nd grade boy: Okay. I shut my eyes durin' the kissin' scene and made believe he wuz chokin' her;

UN FORCES WIN VALUABLE MTL. POSITIONS

As strong United Nations forces won valuable hill positions in the Chorwon area, hundreds of thousands of Chinese Reds were believed to be concentrating in North Central Korea.

The drive toward Chorwon, lead by American Tanks and Infantrymen, was the day's major action.

Two American patrols moved through brush fire haze to capture the last remaining strongholds before the Chorwon area.

Washington..... Secretary of State Dean Acheson told the press Tuesday there was "a strong desire" on the part of the United States and all other interested governments "to get on with the Japanese Peace Treaty as quickly as possible".

In response to a question on if he thought the recent developments in the far east would delay the Japanese peace treaty, Acheson said he definitely did not.

SPORTS

In baseball, as the season finally got under way the following scores are from the two major leagues:

American

Cleveland	2	Detroit	1
New York Yanks	5	Boston	0

National

New York Giants	4	Boston	0
Chicago Cubs	8	Cincinnati	3
Philadelphia	5	Brooklyn	2

Hal Newcomb was sent to the side lines with an ailing arm and young Carl Erskine rushed in as a last minute pitching sub for the Brooklyn Dodger in the season opener against the National League's Champions the Philadelphia Phillies.
